

Dear Parents/Guardians;

As part of your son's/daughter's educational program, (s)he will have the opportunity to publish documents and participate in projects on the World Wide Web. These documents might include a personal home page, a story or poem, a graphic, a science or research project, a group photograph from an activity or club, or a collaborative project with other students locally or internationally. Additionally, your child may have the opportunity to participate in a live videoconference with another school. Individuals with Internet access around the world will be able to view and possibly respond to your child's work by electronic mail. We think this is an exciting and enriching opportunity for our students.

We will publish these documents only with your written permission. Please consider the following options, then sign and return this form to your child's teacher. To see examples of work that is already published on the World Wide Web, ask your child's teacher. Thank you for your cooperation.

Roseland School District Guidelines:

- Published documents or videoconferences may not include a child's phone number, street address or box number, or names (other than first names) of other family members;
- Documents or videoconferences may not include any information which indicates the physical location of a student at a given time other than attendance at a particular school or participation in school activities;
- Documents or videoconferences may not contain objectionable material or point directly or indirectly to objectionable material;
- Documents must conform to school board policies and established school guidelines.

Additionally, documents to be published on the World Wide Web must be edited and approved by a referring teacher and school principal before publication.
